

O'NEILL
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS

Research Workshop on Energy Insecurity and Utility Disconnections
May 24, 2021, 8:30am-2:00pm (EDT)

Hosted by Sanya Carley and David Konisky
O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs

Workshop Program

- 8:30 Welcome and introductions
- 8:45 Energy Poverty: Measuring and Planning
Destenie Nock, Carnegie Mellon University
- 9:30 *A Multidimensional Approach to Energy and Equity: Exploring Energy Poverty
Recognition and Response in the U.S.*
Dominic Bednar, University of Michigan
- 10:15 Break
- 10:30 The Incidence of Extreme Economic Stress: Evidence from Utility Disconnections
Steve Cicala, Tufts University
- 11:15 The Effect of Utility Disconnection Moratoriums on Household Energy and Financial Insecurity
Trevor Memmott, Indiana University
- 12:00 Lunch Break
- 12:30 Housing Precarity & the COVID-19 Pandemic: Impacts of Utility Disconnection and Eviction Moratoria on Infections and Deaths across US Counties
Kay Jowers, Duke University
- 1:15 Reflections and group discussion on research needs
- 2:00 Adjourn